Early Childhood Social Studies: SCOPE AND SEQUENCE

	Toddler	Early Learner	Preschool	Prekindergarten
Relationships between people and places	Identify family members including pets Identify some occupations Demonstrates a basic understanding of Holidays	Identify some occupations and their locations Identify family members including pets Recognize the different Holidays Understand the different forms of transportation Begin to understand personal attributes (boy/girl, name)	Identify personal attributes (boy/girl, whole name, age, hair and eye color) Identify immediate and extended family members including the distinguishing gender Conceptualize different holidays celebrated throughout the year Identify occupations and their roles in the community Match objects to usual locations (for example: tree in park, bed in bedroom)	Refer to Lower School Social Studies Scope and Sequence					